She has been almost helpless for the last three years but was very patient through all her suffering. She needed constant attention and no one ever had more willing, tender, loving care than Lizzie, the youngest daughter, gave her mother.
Mrs. Gammon left four daughters, five sons, fourteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren and many, many friends to remember that their loss is her gain.

Neither side scored in a foot ball game between Hebron Academy and Portland Naval Reserves at Portland, Saturday afternoon. Hebron always has a good team and this year is no exception by the rule. She has been coached by Letourneau of Bowdoin and the men from the academy know foot ball and play a fast, scrappy and clean game. In weight they were about a match for the Naval Reserves with the odds a little in favor of the Portland boys perhaps but the little they might have had in weight was amply made up by the Hebron team in its longer experience and better team work. The grounds were wet and muddy.

OXFORD.

Mrs. Eunice Baxter.

Eunice, wife of Wm. Baxter, passed away, Tuesday, Oct. 13, after a long and ducted by Rev. A. H. Ericsson.

The floral offerings were numerous and very beautiful.

pillow, inscription, "Mother."

Newton Littlewood and wife—wreath.

The bearers were: H. H. Hall, F. A.
Delano, George Trebilcock and James Kay. Interment was at Congregational cemetery.

Mrs. Baxter was a kind neighbor and respected by all who knew her. She was 60 years of age. She leaves a husband, a son, and two daughters, and many relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Assuaged Their Thirst.

Two thirsty men of Oxford went to Otisfield last Sunday for something new to drink. Evidently they got it, and plenty, too, for on their return, coming down Kato hill they forgot to turn by the blacksmith shop in the corner, and continued in nearly a straight line to the ditch near Charles Bumpus' house. The results are numerous and somewhat bloody. One man was found with collar bone broken, a badly bumped eye, bruises innumerable, and unconscious. The other one was seen next morning with his arm in a sling, trying to steady himself against a fence and tell the story of the mishap. A broken wagon, a badly cut, lamed horse, finished out the catalogue of disasters—all for something to drink.

BYRANT'S POND.

Sisterhood Surprise Party.

Mrs. Edward Thompson was very agreeably surprised, last Thursday afternoon, when three carriages drove into her yard and 11 Pythian sisters alighted with their arms full of boxes and bundles. On investigating Mrs. Thompson found that a surprise party had been planned and successfully carried out so not an inkling of the plan had reached her ear.

The mysterious bundles were placed on a table and were opened by Mrs.
Thompson with as much surprise and delight as a child opens her Christmas bundles.

Many useful presents and pretty keepsakes were brought and gratefully accepted and thoroughly appreciated, not only the gifts but the spirit that prompted the givers.

After the gifts were received the Past Chancellor, Mrs. Josiah Hall, and Mrs. Edward Thompson were each presented with a P. C. pin from Evergreen Assembly, the Sitting Chancellor Commander, Mrs. Horatio Bryant, serving as presenting officer.

The visitors evidently knew that Mrs.
Thompson's favorite theory of sociality is "having a lunch," and they spread the table and loaded it with good things which was served with cocoa, as they also prepared.

A merry time was spent at lunch which was made more interesting by a standing joke on one of the sisters, but as we are bound to secrecy we are not allowed to explain. Those present were:

Mrs. Ansel Dudley,
Mrs. Clarence Jackson,
Mrs. Josiah Moody,
Mrs. Horatio Bryant,
Miss Wade,
Mrs. Amanda Noyes,
Lottie Bryant,

revitalizes the nerves and restores sound sleep and perfect health. Mrs. Elizabeth White, of Black Rock, Conn., says:

"I was troubled a long time with my nerves, and could not sleep. I had nervous prostration, and tried many things, but they did not help me. I thought I had heart trouble, for I suffered with pains in my left side and could not lie down. Nervura cured me. I could not sleep, and sent 'and got a bottle. I had not taken it long before I began to sleep and my nerves became stronger. I kept getting better."

"I took six bottles, and then I was well. I cannot tell how much it has done for me. I recommend it to everyone."

READY TO FLY.

I see that is the way you feel, says the Romoc man to the nerve-racked woman, hardly able to contain herself. Anyone certainly has my sympathy who suffers from nervousness. You are not only doing yourself harm by letting your nerves remain in this terrible state, but if you ever expect to be a mother, you are doing an injury to a future human being. No woman with such shattered nerves can bring into this world, sound, healthy children. What can you do? You have tried everything—that's just it—stop trying everything. It is not drugs you want—it is not medicines, the greater part of which are alcohol—that only excites your nerves more.

Just try Nature's own remedy, its name is Romoc, it does not contain any harmful drug or a drop of alcohol. Buy a bottle and follow directions. In a few days you will see the good that it will do you. Not only will it revive your worn out and shattered nerves, but it will build up your entire body and give strength and vigor to every organ.

Romoc will make you a new woman. I could quote you many hundreds of cases where Romoc has made the most marvelous cures.

Ask for ROMOC LAXATIVE TABLETS—SURE CURE FOR CONSTIPATION.

We have investigated Romoc. We know that all that is said by the Romoc man pertaining to this wonderful remedy is true, and we will refund to anyone the price of the remedy not satisfied with the results obtained. Remember, Romoc is guaranteed and sold by

Nature's Decorations.
Willow hedges all must render when they look upon the splendor, the stately ripeness or disarray, of the various colored trees. While in a stately old maple's shade, On pasture's hillside lying, The woody scenes around me laid With gorgeous colors lying. The earth was dry with summer heat, The air was hot and hazy, The many tints were blended neat, Although odd like patchwork crazy. Have caught the hues of lighter gold, But the yellow in which they're rigged Some spots of summer green enfold. While now upon a later day, The weather's changed and growing cold: Some trees have lost their bright array Because the leaves are growing old. But still the hillside landscape view That pleasantly before me lays, Has a rich and more varied hue, Than in autumn's earlier days. The apple trees in greenish gray, After paying their debts when due, In pretty fruit taken away, Are left without a brilliant hue. But the maples along the road With the sunning o'er them streaming, Are dressed in yellow's brightest mode, And in red like flames streaming. While on the hillside o'er the way The grandest scene beholds. Oaks, maples and beech stand today, In colors brown, red and golden. Yet farther on o'er the top is seen The hilltop lovely rising, Clothed in a dress of evergreen, With some golden spots containing. The forest with land is down, Where small spots of emerald glow Among brighter colors. And all around the gorgeous hues In various forms are blended, Whichever course the eye takes, The picture is far extended. No artists could the hillside paint, With all their skill and science hush, In colors so gorgeous and true, As Nature with her silent brush. J. A. BRADBURY.
